

Join us May 24, 25 and 31 for the Eagle Crest Men's Golf Club Eagle Cup Match Play Tournament patterned after the Ryder Cup.

Golf Genius will divide the participants into two even teams by handicap. Kevin Story and Clint O'Neil will serve as team captains. Vice-captains for each team will be Mike Corwin, Ron Cox, Dan Kellogg and Dave McKinney. Team captains and Vice-captains will set up the pairings and tee times.

The two teams will compete in a three-day Ryder Cup match play format competition with all rounds starting with a 9 a.m. shotgun.

- Wed., May 24: Ridge Course - 4-ball matches. 2-man teams best ball. 1 point per match
- Thu., May 25: Challenge Course - 2-ball matches. 2-man teams, alternate shot. 1 point per match
- Wed. May 31: Resort Course - Singles matches. 1 point per match.

After the first two rounds, teams will gather to see the results and share a beverage and some “kind words.” Following the last round, lunch provided for all players at Niblicks and Greens and included in the entry fee.

Cost: Entry fee for the event is $40. All money goes to prize pool. Your men’s club dues are offsetting costs of lunch and team hats. Pay by check made out to E.C.M.G.C. and turned in to the pro shop.

Winnings: All winning team members will get bragging rights and win $80 in pro shop credit.

Signups:

- Sign up via golf genius
- Players must commit to all three dates. Your team may forfeit matches that you don’t play
- Sign-ups close Friday, May 20
- This event has a 48-player limit, SO SIGN UP EARLY!

Ryder Cup Committee: Ray Tatarka, Eric Erickson, Mike Corwin, Ron Cox, Dave McKinney, Dan Kellogg and Mike Bessonette

