Club Championship

Messages before Round 1 - toil in fire country

Tuesday, Aug 22, 3:40 PM

Hello All,

As everyone can smell, we may have some problems starting our Club Championship tomorrow because of the high smoke levels in our region. A core group of our club has worked with the proshop and have come up with some criteria for determining if we will play or not which follows.

At 6am tomorrow, I will check the 'EPA Air Now' app and if it is over a 150 count level, I will send out an email to cancel tomorrow's first round. So, everyone check your email accounts around 6:30am tomorrow to see if we are playing or not.

If we cancel, we will be meeting with the proshop to reschedule our play dates for our Club Championship.

Good Luck to all,
--Eric Erickson

Very Early Good Morning to All,

It looks like we are a go. Some conflicting numbers but Eagle Crest report a count around 100. Check-in starts at 7:30 at the Resort course.

See you (YAWN!!!) there,

--Eric Erickson

Subject: ECMGC: Club Championship First Round  CANCELLED

Hello All,

There are conflicting numbers but the official number is over the limit, so we are canceled for today. The Course is opened for anyone wanting to play a practice round.

Wednesday, Aug 23 PM

UPDATE: This morning Dale, Roger and I met with Ron Buerger and worked out a plan B for the Men's Club Championship. Hopefully the smoke will stay away.

Revised Schedule:

8-24 Challenge Course 8:30 shotgun

8-30 Ridge Course 8:30 shotgun

8-31 Resort Course tee times beginning shortly after 10:00 A.M.

If this new schedule won't work for you please reply to this email and let Eric know so he can revise the pairings.

Air Quality: We will continue to monitor the air quality index for each round and send out a play/no play email by 6:30 A.M. To avoid the confusion of this morning with websites giving conflicting numbers, we will use Purple Air as the standard for decision making, this is the same website that the golf courses use. Our standard for safety is the the AQI must be below 150 for us to play.

Charity Event: As previously mentioned, Steve Laurin has arranged a charity opportunity for the men's club prior to tomorrow's round on the Challenge. The charity is Sleep in Heavenly Peace and a representative will be present at check-in tomorrow to accept donations. The suggested donation is $20. The money will go to the Redmond Chapter of this national charity. They make beds and provide bedding for kids and families who need them in our community. This is an excellent charity and the hope is that many of our members will support them.

See you all tomorrow, hopefully,

--Mike Bessonette

ECMGC: Pairings for tomorrow on the Challenge Course

Hello All,

We'll try again tomorrow. Again, I will check the numbers at 6am. If we are under a 150 count on "Purple Air" app we will be a go. I will be sending an email out soon after I look at the numbers. Attached are the pairings for tomorrow. They are basically the same as they were today. Hopefully I will see you tomorrow morning for our 8:30am shotgun start on the Challenge course.

Thursday, Aug 24, 6:10 AM

ECMGC: Lets play some golf!!!

Hello All,

The air quality number is under 100, so we are good to go today. Make sure to check in before 8am for our 8:30am shotgun start.

--Eric
